

Side By Side – Chapter 13

1. Does it ever seem risky or impolite to talk about or to pray for spiritual matters for others?
2. Why is it important to incorporate Scripture as we pray for those who are suffering?
3. How often do you pray for items such as those listed on page 120 for those who are suffering?
4. How does praying for others turn a two-dimensional conversation into a three-dimensional one?
5. How do we usually pray for someone who is sick? Is this an appropriate way to pray?
6. Welch writes, “Sickness is always a spiritual matter.” What does he mean by that? Do you agree?
7. How can we incorporate II Corinthians 4:16-18 in our prayers for healing?
8. What are two ways our prayers for those who are suffering can be answered in an affirmative manner?
9. Who can be comforted by God’s answers to prayer for comfort in the midst of suffering?
10. Why do we pray for faith for those who are suffering? What closely-related needs might also be included in our prayers for faith?
11. Is anything “too small” to be included in our prayers? What “small” matters has God resolved in answer to your prayers?
12. Is anything “too big” to be included in our prayers? What “big” matters has God resolved in answer to your prayers?
13. Why is following up with someone you have prayed for so vital?
